Reporting Vicious Dogs

If you are aware of an address that is harboring a vicious dog, contact the Dog Control Officer at 518-647-2204 ext. 150, email dogcontrol@townofjayny.gov or visit the town office between 8 AM and 4PM, Monday through Friday. There is a downloadable form available on the Dog Control page on the Town of Jay website to report vicious dogs which may be impacting the quality of life in your neighborhood.

Residents may submit complaints anonymously.

A vicious dog is defined as one that:

- Approached any person unprovoked in a menacing manner or apparent attitude of attack on public streets, sidewalks, parks or any public right of way.
- Aggressively bitten, attacked, endangered or otherwise inflicted injury or death on a domestic animal off its owner's property while unprovoked.
- An animal that was involved in two or more instances of a menacing nature.
- Aggressively bitten, attacked, endangered or otherwise inflicted severe personal injury on a human, either on public or private property.

If residents have any questions or concerns, please contact the Dog Control Officer.
